Jim,

Very sorry about Barbâ€™s passing. Iâ€™ll cherish all the great memories we have from bowling and going to bowling tournaments. Perhaps the time you two set the smoke alarms off at the hotel????? Barb always had a good time at whatever she was doing and lived life to the fullest. The animal world will miss her as well.

Love ya,

Condolence from Chuck & Edye Freeman

Sent on December 21, 2011

Jim, Big G and Little G,

Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the loss of Barbara. We all know what a fight she gave and what a great person she was. In the many years I have known Barb she had become a very good friend. We will all miss her. I will especially miss her laugh and when I call hearing her say "This must be Chuck" and my return of "This must be Barb"

May God be with you in your healing and may the Good Lord Bless and Keep Barb for eternity.

With all of our love and prayer,

Chuck & Edye Freeman, Kalona, IA
