Sent on April 6, 2019

Bill and I have so many wonderful memories of Dr. John. It was a privilege to have known him. He always had a smile on his face and he truly was a healer. His Christian faith showed through as he cared for everyone. He was a great man. All doctors should have his ability to communicate in a loving manner. He helped my parents and my in-laws through some very difficult times. He will be missed. Blessings to the family as you remember your father.
