

Walter Hall

Condolence from Farley Thornsberry

Sent on January 13, 2020

I would have liked to be there to pay respects to a family I dearly love and to see others in our family. Just a couple of weeks ago I was talking to someone about Walter and Lettie. So, as long as they are in our memories they are still alive. Walter was a fun person in a conversation. He had many humorous stories. He is the last of that generation. All dad's brothers and sisters and spouses have passed on but, our loss is Heaven's gain and we'll all be together again... someday!
