

Mary Ellen Phillips

Condolence from Sister Diane Hay

Sent on January 27, 2020

Dear Family Members,

Please accept my deepest sympathy at the death of Mary. I was truly my honor to be able to minister to her towards the end of her life. Little did we know. May God bless each and every one of you.

I learned of Mary's passing just today and regret not being able to attend her funeral mass. I will surely miss her gentle ways and all the kindness shown to me for so many years with cards and visits and phone calls. May she know the joy of heaven and eternal reward.

My condolences to all of Maryâ€™s family.

She is with God.

Cindy introduced me to Mary in October.

I only knew Mary for a short time. However, in that short period she and I became friends.
