I was very sorry to hear the sad news about the passing of Tom King. I knew him from our high school years and a few times spent with him since, but all the very clear memories I have of him bring on a smile. Tom was smart, kind, encouraging and funny. Willard was fortunate to have one of its own with such good qualities applied to a life of excellent service. My deepest sympathy and best wishes to his family.

Nancy & Family,

Tom made working at WPD an enjoyable experience. He always had time to laugh regardless of what we were involved in. Even the day he ripped his knee apart chasing an escapee, he had some funny things to say. I will remember him always.

Tom was a fighter at heart. He showed that time and time again. I know he fought hard over the last few months, but it just wasn't to be. May he rest in peace now.
